Dear Mr. Meckler,

As it is your desire to have Montana join in your effort to attain an Article V Convention by submitting an application to Congress for becoming one of the 34 states necessary to meet the threshold, we, the undersigned legislators in Montana, are hereby issuing you a personal invitation to come to Montana, sometime in the month of March 2021, on the date of your choosing, to publicly debate Robert Brown on the issue of Article V. → or April

We can discuss the details of the debate format as you wish, but we would appreciate your commitment to a public debate and a date so that we can begin promoting the event for our Montana public to attend.

We've obtained the support of the Senate President, Mark Blasdel, to hold the event in the Old Supreme Court Chambers. All we lack is your commitment. Please advise ASAP and we'll look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Senator Theresa Manzella
Senate District 44
