Too many Americans take our Bill of Rights for granted. We see in the example of a Polish pastor, Pawel Chojecki, that freedom of speech does not exist even in countries which profess that they are no longer communist. Polish Pastor Paweł Chojecki is facing criminal charges by the Polish government for violating the country's speech codes. The criminal trial is ongoing. Another hearing will be held on May 28. It will be the last one before sentencing. Pastor Chojecki faces 5 years in prison.
