

Property Rights Under Attack | Activate America

https://media.blubrry.com/jbs_activate_america/jbs.org/assets/podcast/aa/activate-america-210505-Property-Rights-Under-Attack.mp3

Podcast: Play in new window | Download

A Florida man had to take care of his mother's estate out of state. He hired a guy to cut his lawn but that guy passed away and the lawn went uncut. That's when the city stepped in and started to fine him per day for not mowing his lawn, eventually accumulating fines of $30,000!

This is nothing new. There has been a deterioration of property rights all across the country and as a result we see mob rule, anarchy, along with the destruction of property. This destruction has been taking place gradually. Art Thompson will discuss a bit of the history and where your property rights end and where your local government begins.