Our neighbor to the north, Canada, has even worse pandemic edicts than we do in the U.S. You can be fined thousands of dollars if you leave your metropolitan area. Businesses that are ordered shut, can be fined even more, if they are found open. With all these edicts, remember, Canada is a partner in the USMCA agreement with us! So, when you find yourself discussing these and other divisive issues, remember to use humor. You may find the other person laughing with you at how ridiculous some of these issues are.
