Originally aired on November 2, 2020. Christian Gomez interviews former CEO of The John Birch Society Arthur R. Thompson about how and why communists precipitate mob violence. From his days as Executive Secretary of the Support Your Local Police committees in Seattle, Washington, during the 1960s and 70s, Thompson recounts the subversive activities of communist front organizations and their leaders, in the name of Civil Rights and how it relates to today's Black Lives Matter revolution.
