What's been dubbed the "state of delusion" was delivered last week by President Biden. It's probably one of the only duties he's completed that is actually constitutional. It was delivered during a very chaotic time, amidst foreign war, inflation, and with an economy still trying to recover from government lockdowns.

All of this chaos is government-induced, so we'll offer constitutional perspective on what we heard during Biden's speech and how you can help stop the slide into Communism in this episode of Analysis Behind the News, where we provide the perspective to save American freedom and independence.
