

WHO Declares COVID-19 a Pandemic

The China-controlled World Health Organization belatedly declares COVID-19 a pandemic after enabling the People's Republic of China to cover up the virus and condemning countries like the U.S. that attempted to keep out the virus through border controls. Because of the WHO's corruption and denial, the coronavirus is allowed to spread worldwide.