JBS CEO Art Thompson's weekly news video update for Nov. 3 - 9, 2014.

In this week's analysis behind the news video, JBS CEO Art Thompson discusses how the first trip of the new leader of Afghanistan was to Beijing; how Russian hackers are more sophisticated than Chinese hackers; how ten-year-olds are being exploited as laborers in Peru; how the EU has increased its budget and billed the UK for an additional sum to make up the shortfall; how the United States would be subject to such treatment if we approve the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) "free trade" agreement with the European Union; how most Americans don't understand the gravity of the situation regarding the TTIP and Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) negotiations; and how the Republican victory expected for November 4 will not change anything regarding foreign policy and the TTIP and TPP negotiations.
