JBS CEO Art Thompson's weekly news video update for May 11 – 17, 2015.

In this week's Analysis Behind the News video, JBS CEO Art Thompson discusses how Victory Day (May Day) in Moscow brought out the usual hammer and sickle flags and photos of Joe Stalin, demonstrating once again that communism is not dead in Russia; how the U.S. is training Sunni Syrian rebels, which is yet another confusing situation, but just one more action leading to a New World Order; why Europe's leftists are serial losers in elections; how Raul Castro met with the Pope and is considering returning to the Church; how Illuminist Catholic priests during the French Revolution were behind what's known as Liberation Theology today; how GOP presidential candidate Carly Fiorina does not agree with other Republicans on their support for the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) because she opposes China's eventual membership in the TPP; how Senator Jeff Sessions raises the question of whether China could be admitted to membership in the TPP without future congressional approval; and how the TPP is actually the first step to including China and Russia along with the United States in an Asia-Pacific trade merger.
