

Changing the Voters' Minds | Activate America

Many may believe that Conservatives and Constitutionals are the same, but they aren't. Just because we have conservatives in Congress, doesn't mean they fully understand the Constitution and adhere to it.

People make decisions based on their knowledge. If you don't know who is on the ballot and what their stance or voting pattern is, how can you help elect good elected officials?

Learn more about educating the electorate, why it's important and how The John Birch Society can help in this episode of Activate America.
