

Enforcing Vaccine Mandates?

“Every person who lives in Austria must be aware that they can be checked by the police,” stated Austrian Chancellor Shellenberg. Austrians now need to be vaccinated or quarantined. Their freedom of choice is gone. Around 15,000 Austrians were spot checked on the first day of the edict. Many other countries use national police to enforce these edicts. Will America be next?

Join Arthur R. Thompson as he explains how the American system of local police compares to the rest of the world.
