

Pandemic Suppresses Religion

Since the inception of the Covid-19 pandemic, religious institutions have become increasingly suppressed due to government lock-down orders. Ironically, religious oppression is exactly what our founders sought to escape from. For instance, the Pilgrims fled Europe so that they could freely worship. Will our religious freedoms, protected by the 1st Amendment, continue to survive? Today on Activate America, Art Thompson let's you know how the pandemic is being used to strip your religious liberties.
