

Biden: No Amendment is Absolute

Americans are conditioned, now more than ever before, that government can curtail many of their freedoms in the name of safety. In his April 8th speech discussing gun violence, President Joseph Biden stated, "But no amendment – no amendment to the Constitution is absolute." If Americans don't start understanding the basic principles within our founding documents and demand adherence to them, our Constitution and Republic will be scrapped completely. Join Art Thompson as he discusses the dangerous path America is on and what you can do about it.

Read and Share:

1. "State Nullification: An Idea Deeply Embedded in American History"
2. "Federalism Is the Best Step"