

For those communities whose elected leaders either looked the other way or embraced the destruction caused by Antifa and BLM rioters, your chickens are coming home to roost.

Since July, lawsuits have been piling up for one community in particular: Seattle, which hosted the CHOP Zone. Last week, The New American reported, “a District Court justice upheld businesses’ and citizens’ rights to sue the City of Seattle for allowing violent protesters to occupy part of the city from June 8 to July 1.”

We’ll look at the consequences that await Seattle as well as report on what the Department of Justice has in store for Minneapolis in this episode of Activate America, getting active to throw off government tyranny.

Action Items:

1. Conduct neighborhood literature drops or approach targeted business owners with SYLP information
2. Learn to create a local SYLP Committee.
3. Download the PDF of our helpful Startup Manual
4. <https://jbs.org/assets/pdf/Support-Your-Local-Police-Start-Up-Manual.pdf>
5. <https://www.jbs.org/membership-options/>