Given the constant news coverage of the lawless rioting in the wake of the despicable death of Mr. George Floyd, we have a front row seat to see why supporting our local law enforcement is imperative. Certainly not a popular position to take in this day and age, but we must recognize that the police play a vital role in the protection of liberty in our epic struggle to restore Americanism. We'll look at this role and how you can help in this episode of Activate America.
