

The John Birch Society

Author: CSpoehr

Date: April 22, 2020

According to two separate studies conducted in the counties of Santa Clara and Los Angeles, California, the virus may not be as deadly as previously thought, thus destroying any sensible argument for state governors to issue draconian one-size-fits-all “stay-at-home” orders putting millions of Americans out of work.

Take Action

Contact your state legislators and governor to reopen your state