

The John Birch Society

Author: CSpoehr

Date: April 22, 2020

Within minutes of launching the Paycheck Protection Program for small businesses loans, the $349 billion authorized by Congress for the program was depleted with most small businesses not getting a dime. Rather than forcing small businesses to depend on the government to survive, governors should end their draconian “stay-at-home” orders to allow our small businesses to reopen and flourish.

Take Action

Contact your state legislators and governor to reopen your state: