“More than half of U.S. states have imposed lockdown measures restricting gathering and social contact, disrupting the lives of more than 100 million people and suspending the operations of thousands of businesses” reports the Wall Street Journal.

If you’re one of these under lockdown, we feel your pain. We’re under that lockdown, too. So what should our response be? Should we push back? If so, how hard? If not, what do we do? We’ll answer these questions in this episode of Activate America.
