

Since the 3rd and 4th Amendments are so short, Arthur R. Thompson discusses both. The 3rd amendment was a reaction to the use of private residence by British troops. Even though many don't focus on the quartering act, find out how the current pandemic is creating an excuse to violate not only the 3rd, but the 4th Amendment. The current state of our nation has directly affected the Fourth Amendment which allows your home to be your castle. Government cannot come in without just cause, backed up by evidence. Embrace your rights and understand them. It will give you a greater appreciation as to why the Bill of Rights was added after the ratification of the Constitution.
