Wayne Morrow, CEO of The John Birch Society, delivers an overview about the many new changes, programs, books, and updates within the Society and its various affiliates in his first 10 months as CEO. He discusses changing the culture, fostering collaboration with like-minded organizations (such as the Mises Institute and Solari), updating technology and developing brand new websites for TNA and JBS, the latest updates in Missions, transitioning The New American magazine into a monthly magazine and creating the new weekly Insider Report, Western Islands Publishing reprinting classic books (including Fabian Freeway by Rose L. Martin about the Fabian Society's socialist and globalist subversion of the United Kingdom and United States through the Council on Foreign Relations), and FreedomProject Media's new studio for making new FPA, JBS, and TNA videos. Morrow concludes with a call for member engagement, with an emphasis on recruitment and retention of new JBS members.
