For the Love of Financial Freedom

Presented By:
Catherine Austin Fitts

Catherine Austin Fitts, founder and CEO of the Solari and former assistant secretary of housing and urban development for housing, discusses the importance of and threats to financial freedom. Fitts elaborates on what she describes as the financial coup, in which elitist international bankers would run U.S. monetary and fiscal policy. She delves into the recently passed GENIUS Act and the development of a new traceable and programable money, known as stablecoins. Her speech concludes with action steps for people to take, including only using cash, to secure one's freedom.
