

Lieutenant General Michael T. Flynn (Ret.), former U.S. national security advisor to President Donald Trump, delivers a patriotic and motivational speech about service, encouraging people to get engaged through joining and active membership in The John Birch Society. General Flynn begins by paralleling the persecution against him from the Deep State with that faced by The John Birch Society and its founders. Gen. Flynn also breaks down all five parts of the First Amendment, discussing its significance and our responsibility to defend and uphold it.
