

As government overreach germinates throughout the country, South Dakota Governor Kristi Noem takes a stand for liberty, refusing to issue a stay-at-home order or other draconian measures. Governor Noem demonstrates how to govern constitutionally even during a crisis.

Take Action

1. Contact your state legislators & governor to stop out-of-control state government \(i.e. shutdowns and stay-at-home orders\)
2. For those living in South Dakota, encourage Governor Kristi Noem to continue abiding by the constitutional limitations of power by thanking her for doing so.
