

In this episode of Constitution Corner, we welcome Mitchell Shaw. He's a contributor to The New American Magazine and host of Enemy of the Surveillance State Podcast.

In this digital era, technology continues to innovate and improve our quality of life, but it's not without its drawbacks. The Third Amendment forbids the quartering of troops, in your home without your consent. How does this apply to your digital home that resides in not only your computer but all your latest technology?
