

George Washington was a remarkable man and an important person in the founding of our country. This week, Dr. Duke Pesta discusses Presidents' Day and why it honors the greatest president America has ever witnessed; President George Washington.