

Honoring Our Law Enforcement Heroes

James F. Fitzgerald

President, LECF

JBS.org

James Fitzgerald spent eight years as a plain-clothes detective on the tough streets of Newark, NJ. He joined The John Birch Society in 1964 and served as the National Field Director from 2005 to 2016. Fitzgerald has given hundreds of speeches around the country on the dangers of a national police force. In 2016 he started the Law Enforcement Charitable Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to education and financial assistance.
