

The John Birch Society

Author: CSpoehr

Date: February 1, 2008

The European Economic Community (EEC) began for Britain as a free-trade agreement in 1972. Today's European Union is well on its way to becoming a federal superstate, complete with one currency, one legal system, one military, one police force and even its own national anthem. In this shocking new documentary featuring members of the EU Parliament and EU analysts, independent author Phillip Day covers the history and goals of the European Union, as well as the disturbing, irrevocable implications this new government has for every British citizen.

Under agreement with Phillip Day, the John Birch Society has modified the video for an American audience, by adding a new introduction and ending to the video to unmask the similarities between the EU and the North American Union, of which many still say does not exist. We wonder how many EU citizens used to say the same thing?
