

How to Write Strong, Constitutionalist Legislation

The John Birch Society | JBS.org

In this presentation, JBS Research Associate Peter Rykowski discusses how understanding America's founding principles are essential to writing legislation properly. By applying the wisdom of our Founding Fathers, we can avoid common — and dangerous — pitfalls and ensure that state legislation soundly advances limited government and individual freedom.