

Can the state legislative chambers of 38 states truly be the “ultimate safety valve” guarding against any rogue or bad amendments? The Convention of States Project and many other Article V convention groups want to convene a Constitutional Convention. The latest strategy is to convene an open or general Constitutional Convention. Find out on this week’s Straight Talk why that is a bad idea and what you can do about it.

Act Now

Rescind or Withdraw any Article V Convention Applications