It's time we talk about our self-described "flexible" President. While his first 100 days are almost up, we do believe that he has followed through on some bold promises, but this past week we have seen President Trump flip-flop on some key issues.

We believe that the American people deserve to know why things are happening the way they are. It's not enough to sit idly by when campaign rhetoric doesn't match up to what they do when elected.

What else will our "flexible" President flip-flop from? Let us know what you think after watching this episode of Straight Talk!
