Election Day 2016 is four weeks away, and the debates have devolved into a soap opera. So you're left with a decision to make: Clinton, Trump, or third party. The New American magazine has run profiles on all of these candidates, highlighting record and rhetoric. We know what we're getting with Clinton, and we're getting a glimpse of what Trump might be like.

But regardless of who is elected, our job of defending the Constitution will continue. Our job of creating an educated electorate of those who will obey the Constitution will continue. And our job of holding our elected officials accountable will continue as well. Don't get sidetracked! Be sure to share this with all your friends and family!
