PANIC AFFECTS FREEDOM

While the severity and spread of the Coronavirus has yet to be determined, the rise of tyranny in the US is already measurable. Panic has weakened many of our individual liberties that should be safeguarded. America has already witnessed governors from some of our largest states enforcing measures that include the ability to commandeer private property, shut down business and residents are to heed any order or guidance given by state officials.

We'll cover this new reality of Americans ditching liberty for temporary security in this episode of Analysis Behind the News, where we provide the perspective that you can use to help save American liberty and independence.
