

The John Birch Society

Author: CSpoehr

Date: November 12, 2012

In this week's video news update, JBS CEO Art Thompson discusses how the presidential election loss is being used to create dissension among liberty-loving voters; how voting for the lesser of two evils is still evil; how hundreds of thousands of military absentee ballots were not counted; how our government was almost brought down by agents of revolutionary France in the late 1790s; how there was a socialist/communist problem during the Lincoln years; and how the solution is for citizens to join The John Birch Society and "make more votes" by educating and organizing others.