MEDIA DEFENDS DEEP STATE

Within the last two weeks, the media has reached a fever-pitch in its coverage of President Trump. Not content to merely portray him as a racist and white supremacist, some in big media are deeming him a conspiracy theorist after the President retweeted a rather humorous Tweet from comedian Terrence K. Williams questioning how convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, who had plenty of documentation on some political and business elites, including Bill Clinton, could die from suicide.

While this could be easily dismissed as the media picking on President Trump, it points to a much deeper handling of the media's rather shallow reporting of conspiracy. We'll talk about that today on this episode of Analysis Behind the News where we provide the perspective that you can use to help save American liberty and independence.
