NULLIFY RADICAL POLICIES

Nullifying Biden's First 50 Days

Last week, we passed the halfway point of the first 100 days of the Biden administration, and what have we seen so far? A humanitarian crisis at the border. The cancellation of thousands of jobs in the energy sector. Direct attacks on American liberties and our God-given rights, the continued devaluation of the American dollar, and a record amount being added to the national debt. The Biden administration has also helped create irresponsible bailouts of pension funds and major cities across the nation and have pledged to ensnare the American economy due to a radical environmental agenda, that was recently amplified by the freak storm in Texas.
