GLOBALIST HEALTH CONTROL

Nullifying the WHO Power Grab

Go pound sand! That's what our response should be to any unconstitutional power grab, on any level from local to international. You may have seen some coverage of the latest power grab from the World Health Organization, but the remedy to stop this isn't to petition the WHO. We'll look into this organization and its upcoming effort to take control of your health decisions. Be sure to use our free online tool to contact your legislators to tell them to block any efforts from the WHO. Links are in the description. And please be sure to like, subscribe, and share this information.
