If there was ever a doubt in the mind of Americans to which direction this country was heading, then President Obama's comments at a recent UN conference have made it clear. We are to let go of our ability to govern ourselves in order to accomplish the globalist goals of the United Nations. Find out where this is heading and what other "conservatives" are doing to derail the Constitution with a Constitutional Convention. Be sure to share this weekly "Analysis Behind the News" with all your friends and family!
