Depending on the media you are digesting, your view of what occurred with the ObamaCare repeal can widely range from the disappointing leadership ability of the House Speaker and the President to the absolute euphoria that ObamaCare was not replaced with yet another government-run plan.

Aside from the fact that the President chose the wrong team to support, a critical factor that we need to recognize is what happened with the House Freedom Caucus. We take a quick look at what this small group did in this episode of Analysis Behind the News.
