JBS CEO Art Thompson's weekly news video update for December 16 - 22, 2013.

In this week's analysis behind the news video, JBS CEO Art Thompson discusses how Nelson Rockefeller provided a very accurate appraisal of just how extensive the U.S. oil reserves were as of 1974 in testimony before a Senate committee, and how he predicted the United States could be energy independent by 1985; how a congressman has several stacks six to seven feet high consisting of government regulations since April 16, 2011, including one stack seven feet three inches high of ObamaCare regulations issued during that time; how ObamaCare provides for a maternal, infant, and early childhood home visitation program to cut down on malnutrition, poverty, etc.; and how some of Common Core's programs dovetail with ObamaCare programs regarding developing shared data about children's healthcare and education.
