FIGHT OVER MASKING

The most divisive issue of 2020 will almost certainly be face masks. There is headline after headline across the nation of mandates being put into place by governments, business owners, and property owners all in the name of public safety.

One side says the science is settled and we should capitulate to these mandates, while the other side is resisting for a variety of reasons. Does that sound like the climate change battle?

In any case, we'll look at this fight for face masks in this episode of Analysis Behind the News, where we provide the perspective that you can use to restore American liberty and independence.
