

The John Birch Society

Author: CSpoehr

Date: September 1, 2016

From regimented government trade agreements that kill our nation's sovereignty and export our jobs abroad rather than encouraging American-made goods to government intervention in the market place, time and time again we see the failure of government in addressing our nation's economic woes and its failure to keep our country free and independent.