The silent majority of this country has not only spoken, but roared! The Republicans have the Senate, they have the House, and they have the Presidency. The days of excuses from Paul Ryan and other Republican leaders are over. Voters have rejected the globalist agenda of the Democrats, and would it be a stretch to say that they have also rejected the same agenda of the neoconservatives, which is the globalist wing of the party? Now is our time! Get involved in the JBS today!
