NULLIFY — TO — REIN IN!

Welcome to Day 30 of the federal government shutdown—which only affects about 9% of the government. Given the enormous size of the government and the glaring evidence of its enlarged and unconstitutional scope, this is a great time to call into question obedience to the federal government.

In this episode of Analysis Behind the News, we look at a constitutional method of reining in big government—all without the threat to the Constitution.
